Description

Agroblen Total 18-11-11 with micronutrients is a fully coated NPK product designed to be applied in the root zone. The controlled-release is designed to supply essential crop nutrition for up to 3-4 months, with every single Agroblen granule coated with ICL's patented Resin Release® Technology. Enhanced with a essential micros, Agroblen Total 18-11-11 promotes rapid growth by combining a higher analysis of N with P, K, and a full micronutrient package. A popular blend among strawberry growers in California, the precise release is regulated by temperature, to optimize uptake and maximize efficiency.

Benefits

- \\ 3-4 month longevity at 70 degrees F
- \\ Balanced NPK plus full micronutrient pack
- \\ Patented Resin Release Technology for precision nutrient delivery
- \\ Designed to maximize yields & optimize uptake
- \\ Reduced nutrient loss and minimized environmental impact
- \\ Ideal for strawberry growers

Application rates

Agroblen Total 17-9-13 (12-14M) is designed to be applied in the root zone for 3-4 month nutrient supply.

- 139 to 1111 pounds per acre depending on target N amount.
